Life Things:

Vaccinations

Anyone 16 and over is eligible to be vaccinated and they are doing a first shot clinic TODAY at the fairgrounds! Either sign up at covidwwc.com or go to the fairgrounds between 1-4 and walk on in. Let's get vaccinated! :)

Summer!

SEATech will be offering Summer School programs June 21 - July 9 from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. High school students (including this year's 8th graders) will have the opportunity to earn 0.5 high school credit. Programs offered: Filmmakers Boot Camp, Health, or Introduction to Manufacturing.

Priority registration is THIS WEEK

Enrollment forms for all programs are available starting May 3 at myseatech.org. We have a Google form (preferred) and PDFs for each program.

Washington State Leadership Board (WSLB), an organization I was excited to learn about last week. WSLB offers four programs aimed at developing youth leadership across the state (individual programs detailed in the attached document).

Volunteering

The Downtown Farmer's Market is looking at volunteers to help Saturdays with greeting, guiding, and supporting vendors and shoppers. Contact Alex@downtownwallawalla.com if you're interested.

Join Girls Who Code's Waitlist!

Calling Black and Latinx girls and non-binary students who are rising 10th - 12th graders (currently in 9-11th grade)! Did you know only 24% of computer scientists are women? And only 2% of computer science college graduates are women of color? Join Girls Who Code and help close this gender gap!

Though the application deadline for Girls Who Code's Virtual Summer Immersion Program has passed, you can still join the waitlist. Each week, starting the week of April 19th they'll pull a select number of students off the waitlist and offer them a seat.

There's still time to make magic happen, so  fill out the form  if you haven't applied yet to still be added to their waitlist!

And if making your own plans is more your style, make sure to select that you're interested in their brand new Self-Paced Program. With the Self-Paced Program, you can learn to code at your own pace and schedule, and still join Girls Who Code's life-long community of coders. They'll be reaching out to everyone on the waitlist who expressed interest in Self-Paced in mid-May. Now is your chance! ✨

Want to be an engineer?

Interested in learning about the impact that engineers make? Join us on May 12th from 6-7:30pm to learn about engineering in the industries below!

- 1) Air and Space
- 2) Computing, Data, and Digital Tech
- 3) Environment, Sustainability, and Energy
- 4) Health and Medicine
- 5) Infrastructure, Transportation, and Society
- 6) Robotics and Manufacturing
